

SPICER®

Genuine Spicer® Commercial Vehicle Automatic Transmission End Yokes

Dana-Manufactured Allison® Yoke Interchange Option Now Available

Recently, Dana welcomed the opportunity to continue a tradition of success initiated by a popular manufacturer. Dana now offers commercial vehicle distributors new, precision-manufactured heavy duty transmission end yokes designed for Allison transmission applications at very competitive prices.

Aftermarket Transmission Yokes from Dana

Dana manufactures and sells transmission end yokes that will serve as an OE-grade replacement for the Allison product. With a high volume of this popular manufacturer's yokes currently in service—yet approaching end of product lifespan—Dana stands ready to meet the demand and make your job easier.

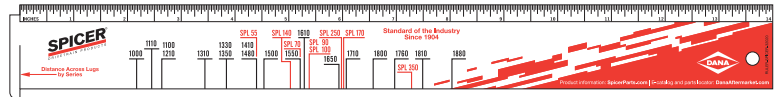

Dana-Manufactured Transmission Yoke Benefits:

- Get the equivalent to the Allison part you need
- Save money with competitive pricing
- Precision-engineered, manufactured, and sold by Dana
- Yokes will be shipped in standard mesh

Spicer® Yoke Ruler

With the Spicer Yoke Ruler, you can quickly and easily measure a driveshaft yoke to determine the series of a driveshaft.
